Moses took the bones of Joseph with him because Joseph had made the Israelites swear an oath. He had said, “God will surely come to your aid, & then you must carry my bones up with you from this place.” (Exodus 13:19)

The highway monument sits beside the road, once its glory could be easily noticed, but now time has gone by & traffic speeds on its way into Culpeper for bargains at one of the Super stores open 24/7. One must be traveling slowly & look to the right & there it is in a madness of timothy, foxtail, clover & different types of grasses almost covering its moment of emplacement. Mother nature is doing its best to hide this interloper.

We see these appointments of kindness due to a sadness & loss alongside other roads & highways. Some are complaining to the “DOT: these are distracting & could cause accidents, for a lack of reasons.

Within this random chaotic arrangement of clover, weeds, & display of bucolic sent from above, flowers is a subliminal message. The staked unstable monument is a Styrofoam cross with its head dress of WalMart vinyl chain of floral flowers. It is the cross & those who sat it in the ground must believe there is a God & there is hope & eventually somewhere beyond this arena of passing joys & moments of sadness is another place, eternal & there we shall all meet again.

Why any person would place a cross to be soon cast into the landfill or crushed by an attempt to mow & clear the byways for passing motorists. If could answer, I would have the answers to more of those questions all of us face from time to time & have to answer, "I don't know!" and, hope this is enough to have closure.

"A little girl was riding on the airplane across the Midwest to spend the summer with her grand-parents. She was reading one of her favorite paperback stories,"Rebecca of Sunnybrook Farm" when a young man took the vacant seat next to her. He attempted to start a conversation, "You know on long flights like this time can pass more quickly if we have conversation. I would like to tell you, "Why there is no God & no heaven & nothing beyond this earth; you live & then you die & that's it!"

With that the little girl looked up from her book, "Do you know why a horse eats green grass & leaves behind round clumps, the cow eats the same grass & leaves behind round patties & the goat does the same & leaves little pellets?" The young man laughed, "I don't know."

The little girl said, "The dimmest farmer knows & I know we have nothing to talk about," & with that she went back to reading, "Rebecca of Sunnybrook Farm."

A Cross for me to carry, on the road of life you see. I know that I must tarry on to my eternal destiny. For Jesus has a Crown of Life waiting just for me...
